"The Lovely Duckling" Well Presented

Congratulations to the members and directors of the 2nd Ward comedy "The Lovely Duckling." We thought it was exceptionally well presented, and the characters in the main fitted the parts to a very pleasing degree. We were a little disappointed in the size of the audience, and we believe that if presented again possibly a large crowd might attend.

Replete with humor, wit and homey situations there were plenty of laughs, and there were dramatic moments when you expected anything to happen and hoped it wouldn't. Costuming and stage setting was all that could be desired, and we had a really enjoyable two and a half hours watching the story unfold.

An habitual weakness of amateur acting is to not wait until the audience finishes its laugh before continuing the next speech, and this was so Tuesday night. The thread of the story for a moment or two was lost on several occasions by speeches being inaudible amidst the laughter. We commend the actors on this fact, however, that except when laughter drowned out the speech they all held their voices up well and practically every word was distinct and clear.

Again we say congratulations to all who participated in the production and we hope that the training of our boys and girls for dramatics may be continued. There is a real value in such work for those taking part.

RED CROSS COLLECTORS

Please call at once either on Lee Brewerton or D. V. Gilmour, and get your supplies for the Red Cross drive. The officials would appreciate getting this drive cleaned up at once.

NEWS NOTES

Pres. T. Geo. Wood Counselor Heber F. Allen and Elders C. E. Alfred and Emil Weed of the High Council were in Warner on Sunday on church business.

Don H. Wall, living now in Salem, Oregon, was a passenger on Friday night's bus for a week's visit with relative, and friends in the district.

We are informed on good authority that housing conditions at the Factory pulp silo became so unsatisfactory that Bryant Heninger was forced to move to the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Nilsson moved from the suite above the Post Office into the Bryant Heninger home on Monday. We understand that Ross has purchased the home from Bryant, who is moving to the farm.

Red Cross Campaign To Be Pushed

Raymond's annual Red Cross Drive is to get under way in earnest now and officials hope to conclude it within the next two weeks at the outside and get the returns in to the Provincial headquarters.

We have been asked again to remind farmers that wheat can be delivered for the Red Cross without interfering in any way with the farmer's quota. Merely ask that the ticket be made out to the local Red Cross committee or officer and the grain buyer is empowered to take all you care to give. Local Red

ANOTHER LETTER FROM ENGLAND

England Oct. 20 1940.

Dear Dad, Mother & Everyone:

I received three letters from you today the ones you wrote on August 27, Sept. 3 and Sept. 23 they all got here the same day along with one from Effie, Howard, Andy Lund and three or four others from over there and some from some of the boys that are here in England. I'd just about given up all hope of getting any letters from you so you see it really gave me a thrill when I got them. I won't have to buy any reading material now for awhile because I'll take about a week to read these letters I received. I guess we can't blame these folks over here too much for not getting our mail out better they have a lot of it to handle and if there are many guys like myself that have changed outfits as much as I have I guess they get a big headache sorting it out as I go waiting for it. I guess I'll be moving again one of these first days. My officer that I was batman for got his leg broke yesterday and will be in the hospital for about three months or more, he got hit by a truck while he was riding a motor cycle and broke his leg in three places. I don't know whether I will get the chance to be his batman again after he gets out. I hope the war is over by then. He's in a hospital about sixty miles from here and I was up to see him and take his things up to him today. We saw quite a bit of country I hadn't seen before and when we came back we came along the Thames River and saw some of the bombing that has been done along there. It's quite a sight worth seeing if it wasn't for the people's lives that were lost. It really makes a person's blood boil to see some of the churches and hospitals that have been bombed. But we travelled about thirty miles along the place that been bombed the heaviest and if Old Jerry ever thinks he can break the morale of the English people he's got to do a lot better hitting than he's done so far.

Well I can't think of very much more to say only that I'm feeling fine and everybody over here is up and at it and think everything is O.K. which it is. So I'll say adios and say hello to the kids.

Your Loving son Thorald.

F. D. Merrill, now living in Lethbridge, was in Raymond on business matters on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Geo. Brewerton and Dr. Hall were in Calgary on business the first part of the week. They returned home Monday evening.

Board Of Trade Report Given

The Annual meeting of the Raymond Board of Trade was held Wednesday evening in the Town Hall with a very small attendance present. Called as the annual meeting, and held early because of the road question facing the southern part of the province and the need for organized action, and also due to the removal of Secretary P. D. Merrill to Lethbridge and the necessity of a new official, it was hoped to elect the officers for the coming year and get the organization away with a bang.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, and letters read regarding exemption of military objectors from military service. The Secretary, after some discussion of these letters was asked to write Edmonton and Ottawa with respect to the teaching of foreign languages in schools, and also regarding the use of German and other belligerent dialects on the streets and in public places.

In presenting his annual report, President Frank Hall spoke of the improvements at the stockyards, the successful Stampede and the amount turned over to the Red Cross from this enterprise, and of the success of the Home and Grounds Improvement Contest which resulted in a much improved appearance of Raymond during the summer. Thanks were extended to all committee members who assisted in putting this contest over, and the Secretary was instructed to write all who had donated prizes for the contest and to thank them for their co-operation.

Mentioning roads, the President read some correspondence which had been received respecting the possibility of a surfaced road being constructed this coming year from Coutts to Lethbridge and felt that we should be fully alive and on the job to see if this road could not be deflected through Raymond to serve this community and Welling and to prevent duplication of building to Magrath Cardston and Waterton Park when they are connected with a surfaced highway. He stated that 176,000 auto passengers had entered Canada by way of Coutts in 1939, compared with 137,000 at Kingsgate, B.C. and 57,000 at Carway, Alberta. These figures he said should be proof enough of the importance of Coutts as a port of entry, and should be enough to cause united and vigorous action on our part to do everything possible to get the road routed thru Raymond. The Road committee were asked to keep working on this and was also asked to attend the meeting in Magrath when it was called.

Alvin W. Jones, was named Secretary pro-tem. A nominating committee of O. H. Snow, L. L. Palmer and J. W. Evans was named to bring in a slate of proposed officers for the coming year and the meeting adjourned to meet again on Monday, January 6th.

Charles J. Tittsworth Of Milk River Passes

Charlie Tittsworth, known to most Raymond people, aged 58 passed away at his home in Milk River Sunday night after a long illness, death was due to a weak heart, Charlie and Mrs. Tittsworth have been residents of Milk River for the past 12 years and during that time had endeared themselves to the people of that district by their open heartedness and willingness to serve.

For many years they were residents of Raymond, Chas. being engaged as a barber. He was a great hunter and fancier of dogs, and took a great delight in the fine and well bred dogs that he always had around him. About fifteen years ago they moved to Taber where he tried farming, and then moved into Milk River where he has since resided.

Members of the L.D.S. church, they, with their son Dick always were interested in Church work and were always interested and present whenever church services could be held in Milk River, and their home was a place for all church members in the south east part of the Stake. Charlie will be greatly missed and we extend our sympathies to his wife and young son in their great loss.

Funeral services were held in the Crystal Hall, Milk River, Tuesday afternoon with Bishop Walker in charge. People had gathered from Magrath, Taber, Raymond and from all over the Milk River district to pay their respects to a man remembered and admired for his service in time of need.

Musical numbers included a quartette by Mesdames Scoville Palmer, Dahl and Salmon, a duet by Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Dahl and a solo by Blanche Seaville, and a solo by Mr. Birch brother of Mrs. Tittsworth.

The opening prayer was offered by Elder Wilford Shields, the benediction by C. E. Alfred and the grave dedicated by Isaac Roberts.

Speakers were Elders Paul Schneider, J. S. Anderson and Bishop Walker, all of whom spoke of the glorious hope of the resurrection, and praised the life of deceased who had been known for his willingness to serve wherever he had resided. Bishop Walker also read an article prepared by Fred Pease from the Georgians of Milk River, an organization to which deceased belonged.

Amongst those present were four brothers of Mrs. Tittsworth who had driven up from Idaho Falls to attend the services.

Our sympathies are extended to Mrs. Tittsworth and Dick in their bereavement.

WEDDING BELLS

KING — WALBURGER

On Wednesday afternoon at 4 p.m. at the home of the bride in Lethbridge the wedding was solemnized by Shirley, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. King and Miss Dora, daughter of Mrs. T. Walburger of Lethbridge. Bishop Frank Steele officiating and relatives of both young people witnessed the ceremony.

Following the ceremony the newlyweds left on a honeymoon to Calgary, Olds and other points, to visit relatives and friends and on their return will take up residence in the new home of Henry Kendall which is just being completed.

We extend our congratulations and best wishes to the young couple for a long and happy married life.

NEWS NOTES

Only 14 more shopping days until Christmas. Don't leave it too late. See our fine Greeting Cards today.

Shop early and shop in Raymond would be a fine slogan for everyone this year. Our business houses appreciate the patronage of the home folks.

We believe a record was made Thursday even for our town belt when rain fell for a few minutes on Dec. 5th, and the Chinook had water standing everywhere.

We understand that the crane at the Factory will commence loading pulp next week. This will be a great piece of news to the boys who have been shovelling from five to twenty tons a day both on and off the trucks.

Local stores now seem to be about ready for Christmas. Added to the decorated windows and interior of the stores, the toys, Christmas candies, nuts and so on and so on, make the street very attractive and especially to the kiddies who linger long to see the various kiddies lines.

"North West Mounted Police"

TONIGHT AND SATURDAY WITH SAT. MATINEE AT 1:15 P.M.

The incontestable evidence that nothing short of a triumph would satisfy Cecil B. DeMille when it came to judgment of his newest picture, "North West Mounted Police," was apparent as soon as the titles started to appear on the screen of the Capitol Theatre last night where the film had its local premiere. Gary Cooper and Madeline Carroll ranked as the stars of the production, and such starring players as Paulette Goddard, Preston Foster, Rolfe Preston, Akim Tamiroff, Lynne Overman, George Bancroft, Lon Chaney Jr., and Walter Hampden were seen in important roles!

As if that cast were not enough to overwhelm and delight any audience, DeMille has chosen this picture to be his first made entirely in Technicolor, and a wise choice it was what with the beauty of Miss Carroll and Miss Goddard and the red coats of the Mounted on the incomparable scenic backgrounds to be caught by the Technicolor cameras.

Never one to skimp when it comes to story either, "C.B." has come up with a grand narrative this time, one that packs action, romance—two love stories in fact!—and adapt itself ideally to filling every reel of the picture with thrill upon thrill!

The next high point of the picture contains the climax of the picture, a bloody ambush of the Mounted by the half-breeds led by Corbeau and his Gatling gun; for Corbeau has promised Chief Big Bear that he will bring him the red coats of the Mounted before three suns have set, and Big Bear has promised to go on the war path if he does.

Incidentally, the second ambush only becomes a possible because of Ronnie's romantic interest in Lovette, a tempestuous, gorgeous Indian girl. Sent out to prevent an ambush, Ronnie deserts his post to yield to her. She has him captured and Lovette's persuasion to marry, tied up by Indians, while Ronnie's co-watcher is killed.

"North West Mounted Police" ranks as nothing short of a triumph for DeMille, his host of starring players and everybody concerned with the production for Paramount.

Quarterly Conference this week end will commence Sunday morning at 10 a.m. when a Priesthood session will be held and the members of all Aaronic and Melchizedek Priesthood quorums are asked to be present. At 2 p.m. Sunday afternoon an open meeting will be held, at which Stake business will be taken care of, and at 7 p.m. Sunday evening the regular M.-A. session will be held.

It is expected that Elder Antoine R. Ivins of the First Council of Seventy will represent the General authorities, and with him will be representatives of the General Church Welfare committee, Elders Eardly and Stott. All Conference meetings will be held in the new Stake House.

On Monday evening at 7:30 there will be a special Welfare Workers Meeting. This meeting should be attended by all Stake and all Ward Welfare Workers, including the Presidents of each of the Melchizedek Priesthood Quorums. All interested in Welfare work are especially urged to be there.

THE COMMANDMENTS OF ALMA TO HIS SON HELAMAN

(Alma Chapter 36)
(Jas. S. Anderson)

My son, give ear to all my words;
Keep the commandments of the Lord,
Then you shall prosper in the land,
And you will stand at God's right hand.

I desire that you, my son,
Shall do the things that I have done;
Remembering the captivity
Of our fathers in slavery.

Helaman, thou art in thy youth,
Heed my words and learn the truth;
I know that they who put their trust
In God are numbered with the just.

I know not these things temporal
Not of the carnal, but spiritual;
If I had not been born of God,
I could not walk the narrow road.

God sent His angel down to me
To turn me from iniquity,
I'd labored with Mosiah's sons,
Seeking to kill God's holy ones.

The angel stopped us in the way,
We fell to the earth in dismay;
His voice like the peals of thunder
Almost shook the earth asunder.

The angel then said unto me;
Arise, I wish to speak to thee,
If thou thyself would be destroyed,
The church of God, do not amoy.

Then I fell down like I was dead;
For three days and three nights, they said
I lay as dead: I was so weak
I could not use my hands or feet.

The angel spake more things, they said;
I heard them not, for I was dead.
His words did seem to strike me dumb,
I lay helpless for days to come.

I was in eternal torment,
Having denied Christ's Atonement;
My soul was harrowed up with sin,
I knew I had been fighting Him.

I was racked with the pains of hell,
I knew at times I had rebelled
Against my God and fellowman;
I had fought God's eternal plan.

How I wished I could be banished
Where my soul would not be languished;
I desired to become extinct
And suffer no more in torment.

For three days and nights, I was told,
I suffered the pains of a damned soul.
While I was thus racked in torment
Then I thought of Christ's Atonement.

When I was in this awful hell,
My father's words began to tell;
For I had heard him prophesy
That Jesus Christ should come and die.

He spake concerning Jesus Christ,
That He would give eternal life
And would die for the sins of men,
That they may all be born again.

As my mind caught hold upon this thought
I cried to God right on the spot,
"O Jesus, thou Son of God,
Have mercy, help me bear my load.

I'm in the gall of bitterness,
I have not walked in righteousness;
The chains of hell encircle me
Because of mine iniquity."

But now, behold, when I thought this,
My soul was full of joy and bliss;
I remembered my pains no more
And all my sins had gone before.

O what joy, what marvelous light!
I did behold, it shone so bright,
And then my soul was filled with joy,
No power could my peace destroy.

Behold, I say to you, my son,
There's nothing in comparison,
Nor so bitter as was my pain
Before that I was born again.

Then I saw to my surprise,
As father Lehi saw likewise,
Our God, sitting upon His throne;
For all our sins He will atone.

There seemed to be a multitude,
And they were in the attitude
Of singing and praising in prayer,
Then my soul longed to be there.

Without ceasing, I have beheld
With all my friends and neighbors,
To bring their souls to redemption;
With them establish confidence.

And now behold, O my dear son,
My labors they will soon be done,
Because His word God has given,
Men will share the joys of heaven.

Behold my son, I also find
I've been supported every time
In all the trials I've passed through;
God witnessed I was born anew.

While I have drunk the bitter cup,
I know that God will raise me up,
He led our fathers through the sea,
Brought them out from captivity.

Ye ought to know, as I do know,
That men do reap just what they sow,
If you will keep the Lord's command,
Then you shall prosper in the land.

If ye will not keep God's command,
Ye shall be cut off from the land;
This is according to the word
Revealed to us in this record.

PLEASURE TRIPS TO THE U. S. A.

Canada is presently in need of aeroplanes, aeroplane engines and parts and other vital war requirements. Most of such materials must be purchased in the United States and must be paid for in cash, in United States funds. To secure these less important calls upon Canada's available supply of foreign exchange, such as pleasure travel, must be subordinated. That is why the Government has asked Canadians to forego pleasure visits to the United States. It is not that Canada is spending less money in the United States than heretofore. As a matter of fact, our expenditures are running to record levels. The question is one of deciding on the relative importance of the purposes to which our foreign exchange resources may be used. Obviously aeroplanes and other munitions of war are more important in the national interest today than pleasure travel of our citizens in the U.S.A.

A resident of Canada must have a permit to take Canadian or American dollars to the United States. The Foreign Exchange Control Board supplies United States dollars and gives permits to take them out of Canada for legitimate business trips, travel for health reasons and in certain other special cases. Special arrangements have also been made for Canadians living in border communities to continue their normal social intercourse with friends in neighbouring American communities. Otherwise, however, Canadians desirous of visiting the United States for pleasure will not be permitted to take out of Canada either Canadian or American dollars.

Canadians who do not observe the Regulations and attempt to take money out of the country without a permit are making themselves liable to prosecution.

PREVENTING CRIME

By opening a new world of ball teams, swimming meets, boys' clubs, and song fests to neighborhood "toughs" and potential gangsters, many American cities have reduced juvenile delinquency and crime as much as 75 per cent, the International Association of Chiefs of Police reports.

Raymond's new bowling alley opened Wednesday afternoon and the afternoon and evening saw both alleys busy almost continuously.

While Western Canada was basking in mild weather, the eastern half of the entire continent reported severe weather with the mercury in places down to 37 below zero. Do we appreciate our climate?
